

Prof. Peter-Tobias Stoll, Chair
Institute for International Law and European Law

Seminar: Brexit – current developments

On 31 January, the United Kingdom has left the European Union. The seminar will address the legal consequences, analyze the so-called Withdrawal Agreement and discuss current developments, particularly the negotiations on an agreement on the future relations.

In detail, the seminar will address the following issues:

- The Withdrawal Agreement and its Protocol on Northern Ireland
- The Northern Ireland question and the Good Friday Agreements
- Implications for environmental protection, labor standards and consumer protection
- Issues concerning competition, subsidies, intellectual property and taxes
- The level playing field and the negotiations of a trade agreement

Introductory meetings ( "Vorbereitung")

- Tuesday, 14 April, 6 pm
- Library of the Institute for International Law and European Law,
MZG „blue tower“ building, room no. 13.123 (access via 12th floor)

Distribution of topics

- Thursday, 30 April, 9 am
- Office, MZG „blue tower“ building, room no. 13.129

Seminar session

- The date and venue of the seminar session will be announced in due course.

The seminar is offered for law students of specialization areas (Schwerpunktbereiche) II, IV, V and IX, for Erasmus exchange and Master students of related programmes. It requires basic knowledges about German public law, EU law, international law, economic or environmental law and some English language skills. Successful participants will be afforded a language certificate (Sprachenschein).

Participants of the introductory meeting of Wednesday 29 January are admitted automatically.

Subject to restrictions of the number of participants, other students may be admitted too and are invited to voice their interest in participation by mail to intecolaw@gwdg.de.

Prof. Stoll