

Prof. Peter-Tobias Stoll, Chair
Institute for International Law and European Law

Seminar: Current Developments in International Economic Law and the EU WTO - Trade Agreements - Investment Law – Sustainable Development - China

The seminar will address a number of current developments in international economic law, such as

- new trends in international investment law: the Multilateral Investment Court and the UNCITRAL process,
- the future of WTO dispute settlement,
- recent EU trade agreements.

Also, the seminar will address the role of the People's Republic of China in the world economy.

Introductory meetings ("Vorbereitung")

- Thursday, 16 July, 6 p.m. and Thursday, 24 October, 6 p.m.
- Library of the Institute for International Law and European Law, MZG „blue tower“ building, room no. 13.123 (access via 12th floor)

Distribution of topics

- Monday, 22 July, 9 a.m. and Monday, 28 October, 9 a.m.
- Office, MZG „blue tower“ building, room no. 13.129

Seminar session

- The presentation and discussion of the seminar papers will take place in Brussels in January 2020. Date and venue will be announced in due course.

The seminar is open to students of specialization areas (Schwerpunktbereiche) II, IV, V and IX, for Erasmus exchange and Master students. It requires basic knowledges about German public law, EU law, international law and environmental law and some English language skills. Successful participants will be afforded a language certificate (Sprachenschein). Participation in the seminar requires

- An application by mail to be sent to intecolaw@jura.uni-goettingen.de, indicating the name, mail-address, the level of legal and language skills and including a cv and
- the participation in one of the introductory meetings.

Prof. Stoll